

Position Title	Production Engineer
Reports To	Production Manager	Location	Calgary, AB
Posting Date	20-Jan-2012	Closing Date	3-Feb-2012
NuVista Energy Ltd. is an independent Canadian oil and gas resource company pursuing a proven growth strategy. Formed in July 2003, NuVista has grown from production of approximately 3,500 boe/day to current production of almost 25,000 boe/day. We work hard to live our Core Values of Honesty and Integrity, Empowerment and Accountability, Respect, Open-Minded Teamwork, Excellence, and Safety, We work hard at attracting and retaining employees who are aligned with these value, are passionate about the work they do and are committed to making NuVista a great place to work. Investment in our people through the delivery of leadership development and team effectiveness training is key at NuVista. We are constantly looking for new ways and opportunities to strengthen our team. For more information about NuVista, please visit our website at: www.nuvistaenergy.com
Position Purpose
NuVista Energy Ltd. has an immediate opening for a Production Engineer. We are seeking a highly motivated individual who can work in a multi-disciplinary team and who is interested in helping grow the company.
Key Responsibilities
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Coordinate and oversee production and operational activities in the Rainbow Lake AB geographic area for approximately 600 bbls/d of Keg River sour oil production and approx 1400 boe/d of Bluesky and Debolt gas production • Coordinate and oversee production and operational activities in the NE BC geographic area for approximately 2000 boe/d of primarily Baldonnel gas production from the Martin Creek field. • Monitor and optimize field and well production to maximize recovery and profitability • Familiarity with conventional bottom hole pumps and pump jacks as the primary means of artificial lift in the oil areas and plunger lifts as the primary means of artificial lift in the gas areas • Familiarity with compression, dehydration, shallow cut refrigeration, and amine sweetening as the primary means of processing in the gas areas • AFE management and cost control of all sponsored projects • Interaction with exploitation and geological staff to identify development opportunities • Work closely with field staff supporting their day-to-day operations as well as being involved in formal project work, well reviews, and operating cost analysis • Coordinate and oversee well workover and abandonment operations • Support construction inspectors on all pipeline and facility construction activities • Work effectively with the production accounting group to review actual production volumes vs field estimates • Support joint venture representative with third party fee reviews, and operating forecasts for joint facilities • Will be required to travel to field locations
Qualifications/Attributes
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A B.Sc. in Engineering with greater than 5 years of oil and gas experience, or Engineering Technology with ten plus years oil and gas experience. • Sour gas experience • Professional Engineer status recognized by APEGGA • Familiarity with ERCB and OGC regulations • Familiarity with working winter access only areas and the timelines associated with those areas

- Extensive computer knowledge, including Microsoft Office, PVR, AFE Navigator, Geoscout, and Qbyte
- Excellent organizational skills with the ability to handle multiple tasks
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team

If you are interested in applying for this position, please submit your resume to:

Online: <https://home.eease.com/recruit/?id=1169381>

Email: careers@nuvistaenergy.com

Fax: (403) 536-8601

We thank all applicants for their interest; however, only those candidates selected for an interview will be contacted.